1. Does your association have a group of identified and organized members involved in international real estate; some type of international structure, e.g., international local council or committee?
2. What was the impetus for the group's formation?
3. Leadership support is critical for a successful program. Please comment on your leadership's commitment to an International Outreach program and why you believe your association would be a strong Ambassador Association.
4. Is there a specific country or national association that particularly interests your association? If so, please comment on the basis for this interest.
5. Is there an existing or specific anticipated potential business interest between members of your association and the members of the above-identified country or real estate association?

Minimum Expectations

Please review the list of minimum expectations for Ambassador Association appointments and indicate your organization's willingness and/or ability to meet this expectation. If you indicate "no," you're invited to comment on your rationale. Please note that there are no defined guidelines on how these expectations are met, i.e., these are not meant to automatically be the responsibility of the AE. Use of strong volunteer leaders is encouraged.
