EARN YOUR CIPS DESIGNATION IN DUBLIN!

JUNE 23-28, 2008

- ◆ Attend all required courses for the CIPS (Certified International Property Specialist) Designation in one exceptional location—International Real Estate for Local Markets, Asia/Pacific, Financial Analysis, The Americas and the Middle East/Africa
- ◆ Network with key real estate professionals from Ireland, Europe, and the U.S.
- ◆ Learn more about the Irish real estate market
- ◆ A truly international event ideal for NAR members who are interested in expanding their European Network

NETWORK AND STUDY AT HISTORIC TRINITY COLLEGE

Build your network and develop real estate business opportunities

- Attend a welcome reception, city tour and gala dinner; attend the CIPS courses at Trinity College
- Share information on your projects and real estate business with Irish, US, and European real estate professionals
- Develop lasting relationships with other students in the class during the week of study
- Earn the Transnational Referral Certification (TRC) during the week in addition to CIPS

Reap the benefits of earning the CIPS Designation

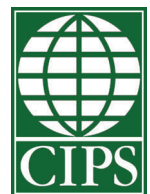

- Join an exclusive network of 2500 CIPS members in over 50 countries
- Market yourself in “Who’s Who in International Real Estate”, both in print and online
- Deliver international real estate expertise to multi-cultural communities in your local market
- Earn more by expanding your market: a recent study revealed that REALTORS® who earn the CIPS designation increase their business by more than 20%
