Expand Your Market Revised and Updated for 2006!

REALTORS® across the nation are increasing their business by expanding their market to include culturally diverse buyers and sellers. This training kit will help your members take advantage of expanding international business opportunities and to understand how cultural differences impact business transactions. This course is perfect for an education session at your company meeting, or for a revenue generator at your local Association of REALTORS®. Because of the strength of the course materials and the facilitator guide, this course can be taught by any of your best instructors or NAR can recommend qualified instructors in your area. This program is designed for up to four hours of continuing education credit or can be delivered in smaller segments to meet the needs of your audience. This training kit includes:

- Two eye-opening videos on cultural sensitivity
- Market-oriented Sponsor Guide
- Comprehensive, easy-to-use Facilitator Guide
- Participant Guide on CD-ROM
- PowerPoint presentation on CD-ROM
