

REALTORS® International Speaker Cadre

- Searching for a speech topic and/or presenter for an educational session on international real estate business in your local market?
- Looking for a speaker to present “Expand Your Market” at your local association?
- Organizing a brokerage office sales meeting about targeting international clients in the local market?
- Interested in being listed as a speaker on global issues for REALTOR® associations around the country?

Look no Further!

Access the REALTORS® International Speaker Cadre:

The International Speaker Cadre is designed to assist in spreading the message to REALTORS® about the significant and growing global business opportunities, in the local marketplace, and to expose members to the resources offered by NAR to help them succeed in this market. The International Speaker Cadre database assists REALTOR® Associations, brokerage firms, allied industry groups, and others who are seeking a qualified presenter on international industry topics.

At the REALTORS® International Speaker Cadre site, you can:

- Search for speakers by name, geographical location or topic.
- Submit your application to be listed as a speaker.
- Download presentation materials for your next program.
