

2007 Trade Mission to Vietnam

Sponsored by the International
Business Council of the Oregon Association of REALTORS®

The Oregon Association of REALTORS® International Business Council is sponsoring a trade mission to Vietnam, January 7– 19, 2007. This trade mission is a tremendous opportunity to learn more about the Vietnamese real estate industry as well as the country's history and culture.

Why Vietnam?

The National Association of REALTORS® has chosen the Oregon Association to be the official "Ambassador Association" to Vietnam. Our unique position on the Pacific Rim, the potential for establishing business relationships with the Vietnamese along with the growing Vietnamese population in Oregon, provides the Association with an exceptional opportunity for business and cultural growth.

What does the travel package include?

- The travel package is $2,280.00 per person based on double occupancy and includes air travel (Singapore Airlines - San Francisco to Singapore round trip) and intra Vietnam flights
- $250 travel add-on (Portland to San Francisco round trip)
- Deluxe hotel accommodations based on double occupancy (can be upgraded to a single for an additional $890/person)
- $250 per person U.S. tax/customs fees (subject to change)
- $200 deposit due by October 2, 2006 to hold member's reservation.
- Payment in full due 60 days prior to departure.
