CONVENTIONAL FINANCE & LENDING COMMITTEE, 10:00am – 12:00pm, Marriott Wardman Park Hotel, Wilson Room A & B, Mezzanine Level

The Committee will hear a presentation by Tom Quinn, VP of FICO, on credit scoring policies and their impact on homeownership, focused on questions raised in advance by members. As requested by the Leadership Team, it will discuss the Home Price Assurance Program (the Hanauer plan). It will also discuss whether to recommend that NAR seek repeal of the statutory authority that allows credit unions to engage in real estate brokerage activities through credit union service organizations. Action items are possible on the credit union question and the Home Price Assurance Program. If time allows, the Committee will be briefed on GSE restructuring, mortgage reform, and mark-to-market issues. Because of the crowded agenda, the Committee held a pre-meeting by conference call on April 24, 2009, to discuss Fannie Mae condo policies (with Fannie Mae representatives), problems with short sales, and the Seguiera plan.

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 2009

LAND USE, PROPERTY RIGHTS & ENVIRONMENT FORUM, 10:00am –11:30am, Marriott Wardman Park Hotel, Thurgood Marshall Ballroom South Mezzanine Level

The Forum is conducting a Town Hall-style format this year. Instead of having speakers come and talk about a particular issue, the Forum Chair and Vice-Chair will moderate a free-flowing discussion of land use, property rights and environment issues among Forum participants. Participants will be able to discuss issues, legislation, regulation and activities that are happening in their state or community that are impacting Realtors and real estate. The thrust of the Town Hall format is to identify ideas and perspectives regarding land use and environmental issues that are impacting real estate markets and communities and develop constructive solutions for consideration by the Land Use, Property Rights and Environment Committee. NAR staff will be in attendance to provide policy perspectives and political insights and to offer suggestions on internal and external resources that might be available to help members address these issues.
