

INTRODUCTION

Many Roads Lead to an Affordable Community / 2

BALTIMORE

Professionals Find a Market for Vacant City-Owned Properties 6

Could SCOPE Work in Your City? / 8

MEMPHIS / IOWA CITY / CINCINNATI

REALTORS® and Home Buyers Learn to Recognize Opportunity When They See It 10

Members Teach What Homeownership Is About / 12

Ambassadors Make Section 8 Vouchers Go Farther / 15

Ambassadors Spread the Word About Affordable Urban Housing / 17

Four Steps to Education / 18

CHARLOTTESVILLE / SAN DIEGO / CINCINNATI

Loans and Grants Help Qualified Buyers Close the Financial Gap 20

REALTORS® Give Long-Term Loans to Essential Service Providers / 22

Financial Relief for “Everyday Heroes” / 23

Education Sometimes Is Not Enough for First-Time Home Buyers / 24

Three Steps: Money, Beneficiaries, and Disbursement / 26

ORLANDO / BOULDER

Associations Take Home Building into Their Own Hands 28

Affordable Housing Can Please the Eye / 30

A “Wealth Based” Community Gets Alternatives / 32

Step-by-Step to Build Your Own / 33

AMBASSADORS FOR CITIES

Designated Cities Around the Country / 36

6

10

20

28

Copyright ©2008 NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, Community and Political Affairs, 500 New Jersey Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20001-2020. All rights reserved.

Art directed by Sensical Design and Communication

Cover photo by Kenneth K. Lam/ Baltimore Sun staff

